

THE FILMS

CLASSIC CHRISTMAS: IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE (U)

George Bailey spends his entire life giving up his big dreams for the good of his town, Bedford Falls. On Christmas Eve George is broken and suicidal over the machinations of the evil millionaire Mr. Potter and the misplacing of a $8,000 loan. His guardian angel, Clarence, falls to Earth and shows him how his town, family, and friends would turn out if he had never been born. George meant so much to so many people; should he really throw it all away?

EXTREME CHRISTMAS: DIE HARD (18)

When New York cop John McClane arrives in LA to visit his wife and son for Christmas, the last thing he expects is a German terrorist onslaught... Watch Bruce Willis in the role that resurrected his career as he singlehandedly takes on a terrorist cell, bent on taking over the offices of his wife's high profile Japanese employers.

COMEDY CHRISTMAS: NATIONAL LAMPOON'S CHRISTMAS VACATION

It's Christmas and mayhem for the Griswold family. Clark Griswold (Chevy Chase) desperately wants to have the greatest Christmas ever and hosts his extended dysfunctional and quirky family in an attempt to share the holiday spirit. Whilst hopelessly trying to fix up the Christmas lighting his bizarre family roll up unexpectedly bringing their own Christmas Chaos and Snots the dog.

MUSICAL CHRISTMAS: GREASE

Grease is the word and the musical that stole the heart and imagination of every teen in the 70s. It's got it all to get your motor running and party started. Starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton John there's romance, fabulously choreographed musical numbers and unforgettable cheesy songs like "Greased Lightning," "Summer Nights," and "You're the One That I Want".
